9:30	Cassie Rigby - Plenary
10:15-10:45	Morning Tea
	Fisheries - Chair: Samantha Sherman
10:45	Khalfan Alrashdi Diversity and fisheries of batoids in the Sultanate of Oman
11:00	Tracey Scott-Holland Queensland Shark Control Program research and trials
11:15	Sasha Faul* The lost years: Searching for essential habitats for juvenile sharks
11:30	Samantha Sherman Missing Sharks 2: RFMOs, CITES, and other acronyms
11:45	Jennifer McCausland* Missing Sharks 2: Deep diving into catch and trade mis-matches
12:00	Ian Knuckey and Glenn Sant SharkTrace: Integrated mobile applications for tracing shark products through the seafood supply chain
12:15-13:15	Lunch (provided)
	Conservation and Ecology - Chair: Brit Finucci
13:15	Natalie Klinard* Applying a causal inference framework to evaluate management of reef sharks
13:30	Steve Gerber Elasmobranch spatial ecology in Africa's southernmost coral reef systems
13:45	Ingo Miller* Needle in the haystack: In search of Whale Sharks in the Coral Sea
14:00	Louisa Graf* Current and future distribution and abundance of Victorian sharks and rays
14:15	Martina Lonati* Underwater ROVs illuminate the nocturnal ecology of sharks
14:30	Jake Edwards-Ingle* Eye in the sky; insights into the predation of young reef sharks
14:45-15:15	Afternoon Tea
	Trophic Ecology - Chair: Lauren Meyer
15:15	Aliah Banchik* Hungry shovels: the feeding ecology of juvenile shovelnose rays
15:30	Muhammad Ichsan* Diet of wedgefish (Genus Rhynchobatus) in the Indo-West Pacific region
15:45	Isabella Reeves* Fine dining at sea: Nutrition is key to killer whale tissue specialisation
16:00	Bradley Hayman* Exploring resource use in South Australian chondrichthyan mesopredators
16:15	Darren Wong* Trophic ecology of Southern Ocean skates from the Kerguelen Plateau
16:30	Jaelen Myers* Dinner is served! Comparing diets of sympatric whiplays in intertidal flats
18:00-20:00	Student Event - The Deck

April 4

9:00	Announcements
9:15	Fahmi - Plenary
10:00-10:30	Morning Tea
	Physiology - Chair: Vic Camilieri-Asch
10:30	Carmen Dobszewicz Using Epaulette Sharks to unveil new frontiers in climate change research
10:45	Shamil Debaere* Searching for signs of stress in baby blacktip reef sharks
11:00	Adrienne Gooden* Changes in habitat suitability and distribution in a marine top predator
11:15	Hope Robins* The impact of man-made sound on Port Jackson Shark physiology and behaviour
11:30	Brittany Finucci Capture stress on deepwater chondrichthyans
11:45	Victoria Camilieri-Asch Cartilage under pressure: what can we learn from deepwater chondrichthyans?
12:00	Theda Hinrichs* Cartilaginous tissues in deep-diving, shallow-water mobulids
12:15-13:15	Lunch (provided)
	Physiology and Genetics - Chair: Madi Green
13:15	Laura Solon* The electro- and mechanosensory systems of deepwater chondrichthyans
13:30	Brittany Heath* Assessing wound healing in Port Jackson shark (Heterodontus portusjacksoni)
13:45	Ryan Hesse* A viral inflection: The invisible ecology of shark epidermal wound healing
14:00	Zach Clark Revised population structure of the Australian White Shark
14:15	Owen Holland Does relatedness drive white shark aggregatory behaviour?
14:30	Floriaan Devloo-Delva Epigenetic response to environmental change across School Shark populations
14:45-15:15	Afternoon Tea
	Human Impacts - Chair: Darren Wong
15:15	Delphine Duval* A myriad of factors but little evidence to explain unprovoked shark bites
15:30	Jonathan D. Mitchell Shark surveillance: Three years of the Queensland SharkSmart drone trial
15:45	Lauren Meyer Efficacy of bite-resistant fabrics to reduce injuries from shark bites
16:00	Isabella Kassa* Impacts of anthropogenic noise on development in the Australian Ghost Shark
16:15	Kristy Potgieter Using citizen science and AI to understand stingray spatial ecology
16:30	Laura Holmes* Impact of jaw preservation on elasmobranch tooth stable isotopes
16:45	Logen Flem* Predicting flight responses of Reef Manta Rays via UAS drone surveys
17:00-18:00	Poster Session - Costa Hall

Friday, April 5, 2024
8:00-9:00	Registration Desk Open
